

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

IS UNITED STATES BUTTERFLY EXPERT.

Mrs. Emily Crawford, entomological preparator for the Government, has contributed much useful information as a result of her study of the country's butterflies.

A BONE OF CONTENTION.

Baby wolves at the National Zoological garden occasion much amusement for spectators by their vociferous arguments over possession of a tidbit.

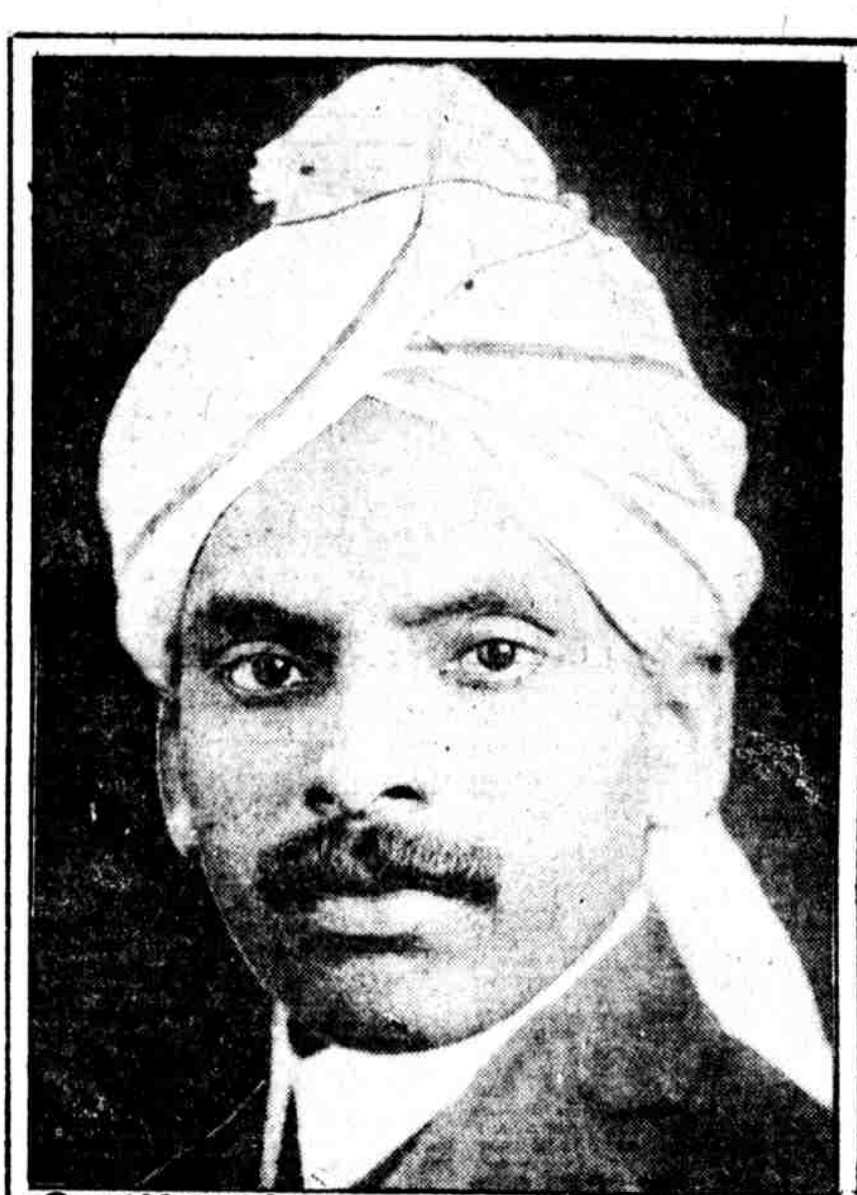

COMMANDS GREEK FLEET'S ACTIVITIES.

Prince Georgios, brother of the King of Greece, who is getting his navy in condition for probable entrance in the European conflict.

LEAPS TO FAME AS SUCCESSFUL NOVELIST.

Miss Alice Gerstenberg, whose latest novel, "The Conscience of Sarah Platt," has clinched her right to place in the ranks of the foremost writers of the day. Miss Gerstenberg is well known to the theatrical world for her "Alice in Wonderland" and "Model Maid."

TEACHES NATURE OF THE SOUL.

Dr. S. Paul Chinnapa, the Hindoo, whose theories in regard to transmigration of souls have given New York a thrill.

REACHES HEARTS OF ENGLISH PEOPLE.

Princess Henriette, the Duchess of Vendome, sister of King Albert of Belgium, who is a refugee in England, has won the admiration of all by her brave bearing.

ITALIAN CAVALRY PROVE THEIR EFFICIENCY.

A troop of Italian horsemen are seen here in a daring feat during the recent maneuvers, in which they were called upon to demonstrate their preparedness for war. These men are members of the army that has been concentrated on the Austro-Italian border, waiting the word to strike.